SMALL FRUITS.

As we are paying special attention to the production of BLACKBERRY, RASPBERRY AND STRAWBERRY PLANTS.
our stock for the coming Fall and Spring of 1860, will not only be very large, but of the best quality, which we shall offer at greatly reduced prices.
NEW ROCHELLE, OR LAWTON BLACKBERRY is still growing in favor, and the demand for plants this Fall promises to be unusually large.
WILSON'S ALBANY SEEDLING STRAWBERRY is undoubtedly the most universally popular variety in the country. Its extraordinary size, wonderful productiveness, and other good qualities have placed it at the very head of the list, wherever it has been tested, especially for market purposes. Having been among the earliest to procure this variety, and having cultivated it more especially for plants, we shall be able to offer for sale in the spring of 1860
OVER ONE MILLION PLANTS.
These plants are now being cultivated in the most careful manner, and one of them will be worth more than a dozen of such as are carelessly grown among grass and weeds. We cordially invite persons wishing to purchase to visit our grounds and examine our mode of producing plants.
WE SHALL REDUCE the price of plants in the spring of 1860 so as to place them within the reach of all.—We have experimented largely as to the best time of planting the Strawberry, and unhesitatingly recommend the Spring.
Our selection embraces OVER ONE HUNDRED VARIETIES, including all the native and foreign kinds, of any repute.

The Weekly Tribune.

Middleburg, March 21, 1860.

M. T. HEINTZELMAN, Editor.

FOR PRESIDENT.

Simon Cameron.

Subject to the decision of the Chicago Conv.

FOR GOVERNOR:

Andrew G. Curtin, of Centre co.

The Republican National Convention.

A National Republican Convention will meet at Chicago, on Wednesday, the 16th day of May next, at 12 o'clock (noon) for the nomination of candidates to be supported for President and Vice President at the next election.

The Republican electors of the several States, the members of the People's party of Pennsylvania, and of the Opposition party of New Jersey and all others who are willing to co-operate with them in support of the candidates who shall there be nominated, and who are opposed to the present Administration; to Federal corruption and usurpation, to the extension of slavery into the Territories; to the new and dangerous political doctrine that the Constitution, of its own force, carries slavery into all the Territories of the United States; to the re-opening of the African slave trade; to any inequality of rights among citizens, and who are in favor of the immediate admission of Kansas into the Union under the Constitution recently adopted by its people; of restoring the Federal Administration to a system of rigid economy, and to the principles of Washington and Jefferson; of maintaining inviolate the rights of the States, and defending the soil of every State and Territory from lawless invasion; and of preserving the integrity of this Union, and the supremacy of the Constitution and laws passed in pursuance thereof, against the conspiracy of the leaders of a sectional party to resist the majority principle as established in this Government at the expense of its existence, are invited to send from each State two delegates from every Congressional District, and four delegates at large to the Convention.

(Signed by the National Committee.)

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS AND OTHERS.

All Business letters and Communications for the Tribune, must hereafter be addressed to M. T. Heintzelman, sole Proprietor of the Tribune.

To the Public.

We would announce to the Public that the proprietorship of the "Weekly Tribune" has been changed, and that hereafter, M. T. Heintzelman will be sole Proprietor. The accounts of the firm of Heintzelman & Young, are in the hands, and will be settled by M. T. Heintzelman.

The Tribune will, in its future course, maintain the principles heretofore advocated, viz: Protection to Home Industry—Opposition to the present extravagant Administration—Opposition to the extension of Slavery into Territory now free—In favor of a Homestead Exemption Law to actual settlers—and in favor of Internal Improvements by our National Congress. We shall exercise the right of private judgment, and know no North, no South, nor East, nor West, and allow the same inestimable privilege to all others.—We shall encourage with all our might, progression in the Arts, Science, Literature and Religion, fearless and regardless of the scuffs and jibes of Infidels and Demagogues, whether found in our own, or in the Shamocratic parties. Hoping that our efforts will be duly appreciated by an enlightened community, we will endeavor to merit their continued confidence, cordially thanking them for their past encouragement.

To Our Readers.

It is now about two years since I was first interested in the Tribune office and contributed to its columns, part of the time I was one of the Proprietors and had almost exclusive control of it. I labored hard and have the satisfaction to know that its subscription list has been almost doubled and the patronage otherwise increased, this is gratifying to me. I now withdraw again as proprietor from the paper; it is again vested in M. T. Heintzelman, my co-partner. He will have the exclusive control of it, having purchased my half, books, accounts and all. I shall however, continue to contribute to its columns, and otherwise exert myself to enhance its success. My reason for this step is two fold. I have business to attend to which will frequently call me away from this place; and besides this, I have now an indirect interest in a German paper, and am about to negotiate for another.

We hope the citizens of Snyder will ever stick to the Tribune, no matter in whose hands, so long as it supports correct principles and advocates their interest. All business letters should hereafter be directed "Tribune", or M. T. Heintzelman.

JOS. YOUNG.

COL. ANDREW G. CURTIN.—The nomination of this gentleman, by the Peoples' Party, at its late Convention at Harrisburg, meets, as it deserves, with one unbounded greeting of universal satisfaction, from every hill and valley, and mountain top, throughout the length and breadth of the glorious old Key Stone State; and just as sure as the second Tuesday of October next arrives, just so sure will Col. Curtin be triumphantly elected our next Governor. A more popular man, could not have been selected by that convention. The untrammelled Press all over the State endorse his nomination. His sterling integrity—his social and political qualities, make the man stronger than his party. His experience as Secretary of the Commonwealth, and as the intimate friend, and Constitutional adviser of Ex-Governor Pollock, well fit him for the duties of that high position, and manfully and honorably will he discharge them. With him at our helm, victory is our reward.

HON. JOHN W. KILLINGER.—Our Congressional District may well feel proud of her intelligent, industrious, and worthy Representative on the floor of Congress. Mr. Killinger deserves the thanks of his constituents, for his untiring attention to their interests—a more watchful and indefatigable member, never represented his constituency. He circulates the Documents among us—such as Seward's last great speech—McPherson's speech, and Killinger's remarks and advocacy of the Tarrif, &c., all of which deserves to be spread broad cast over the country, so that every man, woman, and child, may enjoy the inestimable privilege, of seeing, hearing, speaking, and thinking for themselves. This may not suit our Shamocratic brethren, but thanks to a free and enlightened public sentiment, our Postmasters dare not poke their long peaked noses into mail matters, to smell out "treason rank," for if they did, we think the people would raise such a "buzz" about their long ears, as to make them seek shelter down South among their more congenial elements.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.—The Times is of opinion that the present incumbent, should be unanimously re-elected. Wonder if the Democrats had the power, whether they would be so kind-hearted as to appoint a Black Republican to the post? and re elect him unanimously? It is said charity begins at home, therefore we hope our friends will take the hint. The Directors will meet for the purpose of electing a Superintendent, on the 1st Monday of May next, at the County seat, who shall be a "person of literary and scientific acquirements and of skill and experience in the art of teaching." Such is the law on the subject.

THE SUNBURY BRIDGE.—Our neighbor of the Sunbury American has been giving our State Senator Keller, a rap, for proposing an amendment to the bill for the construction of the above bridge, as he thinks the amendment will prove injurious to the bill.—he also takes the Times to task for saying "If you build up Sunbury you break down Selinsgrove. If the one at Sunbury be built first, both will be built, but if the one at Selinsgrove be built first, the one at Sunbury would never be built."

Now if the argument of the Times is true, we say, build both, because we do not believe that the people wo'd be so foolish as to build two bridges if it was not necessary, and if Sunbury must build first we would say to Keller, give the bill all the encouragement you can, for the Selinsgrove bridge will be built anyhow, and it's taken for granted that it will pay. A bridge certainly would be a great convenience at Sunbury, for the towing of boats, &c.

We go in for as much improvement as possible. Therefore we say give us both bridges.

ELECTIONS.—The returns of the Spring elections throughout the county of Snyder show a healthy state of affairs in the American Republican Party. We have been successful wherever there has been any occasion for a triumph, and we opine that by the time the fall campaign comes off, there will not be a grease spot left of the Shamocracy.

☞ The writer of the communication A Subscriber, should have signed his name. Our rule is cash payment for such recommendations.

We agree with all that is said in the communication, but cannot violate our rule.

RASCALLY DECEPTION.—The Reading so called Democratic Convention, passed a resolution in favor of Protection to American Industry, while every representative from this State, in Congress, polled their votes for a Free Trade Speaker, who would have appointed a Committee opposed to Protection to American Industry. This is equal to the "Polk, Dallas and the Tariff of 1842" swindle practiced upon the people in 1844.

☞ A Homestead bill has passed the lower House of Congress. This is right. Now let the Senate do its duty in this connection.

☞ Gov. Packer has appointed Thos. H. Burrowes, Esq., Superintendent of Common Schools for three years, from the first Monday of June next. Mr. B. has long been a warm and efficient friend of good schools.

COL. CURTIN AND THE PRESS.—The nomination of Mr. Curtin for Governor is accepted with more than usual favor by the public. There seems to be an element of popularity about him that overcomes all disposition to cavil.

The Chester County Times greets the nomination in the following enthusiastic manner:

THE STATE CONVENTION.—We had barely time to announce the nominee of the State Convention last week.—By this time it is generally known throughout the State, that Col. Andrew G. Curtin received the nomination on the second ballot. The result was expected, although but few supposed it would be reached before the third trial. He went into the convention with much more strength than was anticipated by his competitors, and in this his popularity was exhibited so fully that the nomination was received with the most unbounded enthusiasm. The North American well remarked, that 'with rivals like Townsend Haines, John Covode, &c., it is a proud triumph for a man of Mr. Curtin's years to receive the nomination of a victorious and dominant party.' It was a convention of more talent and better material than had ever assembled on any similar occasion in the State, and those who attended to witness the proceedings were vast in numbers and eminent in ability, far beyond the usual attendance on such occasions. All this exhibited the profound interest felt by the people, in the action of the convention which was to inaugurate the great battle for freedom and protection throughout the Union. Mr. Curtin and his friends have mutual cause of congratulation, for while he is honored by the nomination, the convention has secured a standard-bearer who will unite the whole opposition force of the State, and lead them to a glorious victory.

The True American, John Covode's home organ, speaks as follows:

We have this week hoisted the Curtin at our mast head, by which more light may shine in on the dark deeds of Locofocoism.

In presenting the name of Hon. A. G. Curtin, as the standard bearer of the People's Party, we congratulate our friends upon the happy result of the deliberations of the concentrated talent and wisdom of Pennsylvania.

Although Hon. John Covode was our first choice, as well as the first choice of thousands of others,—although his father and our father were pioneers in the settlement of the same valley, at a time that it tried men's souls, and he and ourself of almost precisely the same age,—reared under our respective paternal care in boyhood,—enjoying together all the exquisite pleasure of swimming and fishing in the crystal waters of the Conemaugh river,—having lived close neighbors much of our more mature lives, and for a number of years having batteled together against the malignity of the most reckless, and desperate political foes, yet after bearing from the lips of such men as Hon. Samuel Calvin and Hon. David Taggart, (both the early associates of Hon. A. G. Curtin,) such testimony of his record, and such a hearty recommendation of the man, publicly announced by all the defeated candidates for nomination, we cheerfully enlist under the Curtin banner, and shall keep our Curtin unfurled to the breeze until we shall have planted our standard-bearer, and raised our Curtin into the gubernatorial chair.

The Carlisle American, a paper that has done good work for the cause, thus emphatically endorses the ticket:

The ticket nominated is the best ever presented to the Freemen of Pennsylvania for their endorsement, and will be triumphantly elected. Col. A. G. Curtin, who has been made the standard-bearer of the hosts of freedom in the gubernatorial contest, is in himself a tower of strength. He is a gentleman of acknowledged ability, capacity, and high moral and political integrity—a working man who understands what the State and her citizens demand in this crisis of affairs. His election will be an honor to Pennsylvania, and we hope every man who has the interest of this great State at heart will give him his support. Mr. Curtin requires no eulogy at our hands. He is worthy and true—honest and competent, fully coming up to the Jeffersonian standard for office, and to support him vigorously and effectually, should be the pride and pleasure of every true Pennsylvanian.

The Jersey Shore Vedette gives the following testimony:

If we are to judge of the feelings of the majority of Democrats in this county by many of that party in Jersey Shore, we can not hesitate to set down a majority for Curtin in Lycoming of full 1,000 votes. We have not the slightest doubt from what we have seen and heard, that two thirds of the Democrats in this vicinity will cast their votes for A. G. Curtin. They know the man; and, as was intimated to us by a friend, they feel that it makes no difference who is nominated at Reading, since Curtin, by the hold he has on the hearts of the masses, has already won the day. We call on our friends in Centre county to look well to their laurels or their county may not be successful in bearing off the banner.

THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE.—According to correspondents on the African coast, the slave trade is flourishing extensively, notwithstanding the presence of a large force of United States and British vessels of war. It is said the vessels now engaged on the African coast in this traffic may be numbered by dozens, and that the larger part of them are owned by Americans and have regular custom house clearances. The captains of these vessels claim to be engaged in the palm oil business. Ligh draught steamers, it is believed, would assist the government effort to break up the traffic.

A NOVEL LAW SUIT.—A case is on in the Detroit Police Court, involving the right of a fellow to take back the presents he has made to a girl, when she says she won't have him, and is getting ready to marry somebody else. A young man who had disposed of about $76 worth of jewelry in this way, during a three years courtship, is on trial for larceny, in invading the lady's bedroom and seizing the property, when he had discovered it was to adorn another man's wife.

☞ Petitions for sparing the life of Stevens, the confederate of Old Brown, are now circulating in various parts of the country. It is said that Governor Letcher has promised to give the subject his most careful attention. Mr. Sennott is engaged actively in the matter.

EXCITING SCENE.—While the Davies county, Indiana, Common Pleas Court was in session at Washington, on Friday, Judge Clements presiding, a stalwart stranger stepped up in front of the Judge, and pointing a pistol at him, remarked, "Now, old gentleman, I've got you!" Judge Clements instantly called upon the bystanders to seize him, which was instantly done, with great difficulty, and the pistol taken from him, requiring the united exertion of half a dozen men to wrest the weapon from his hand. It was subsequently ascertained that the man was insane. He is a citizen of Martin county.

☞ We heard of an old gentleman who had three daughters, all of whom were marriageable. A young fellow went a wooing the youngest, and finally got her consent "for better or for worse." Upon application to the old gentleman for his consent, he flew into a violent rage, declaring that no man should "pick his daughters that way," and if he wished to get into his family he might marry the oldest, or leave the house forthwith.

☞ Wives, never snatch your husbands tobacco. Last Thursday a gentleman on the train from Washington to New York, in company with his wife, had occasion to take from his pocket a piece of tobacco wrapped in paper, and instead of taking the weed, as she supposed, drew out a roll of bank bills, amounting to $250, when his wife playfully snatched the same from her husband's hands and threw it out of the window. The gentleman returned on the next train in search of his lost treasure.

"ON THE HOME STRETCH."—On Saturday evening last we accidentally came in contact with a young man from Hartford, Connecticut, who is on the home road from Pike's Peak gold diggings. He was shot in the hand in an encounter with the Keokuk Indians, the result of which was a loss of three fingers. The price of boarding, he says, at the mines is fifteen dollars per week, and other necessaries in proportion. The chance of Adventurers realizing a fortune is exceedingly slim. As for himself, after a sojourn there of some six months, he returns to his home in Yankee land, penniless. He was present when Homes the reckless adventurer from Illinois, was flayed alive by the Crow Indians for shooting without provocation one of their aged squaws. The scene as he describes it must have been horrible. It took them about fifteen minutes to remove the skin from him, during which time they kept up such a yell as entirely to drown the shrieks and cries of their victim.—The wretched man survived some twenty minutes after the operation of skining.

As an evidence of the determination with which the Indian will seek for vengeance, it need only be stated on the authority of this gentleman that they followed the train for a distance of some twelve or fifteen miles before they demanded his surrender. Two hundred of the tribe were in the pursuit, and the train numbered about fifteen or twenty, so that anything like resistance would have been madness.—Haines died a horrible death, yet there are few but what will admit that he deserved his fate. The shooting of an aged and inoffensive squaw, without provocation, was an act, to say the least of it, deserving the severest punishment.—Lan Ex.

A FUNNY INCIDENT.—The appended negro story, copied from a Southern correspondent of a Boston paper, is not bad. General C., gave his black man Tawney, funds and permission to get a quarter's worth of zoology at a menagerie, at the same time hinting to him the striking affinity between the monkey and negro races. Our sable friend soon found himself under the canvass, and brought to in front of a sedate looking baboon, and eyeing the bibo quadruped closely, soliloquized thus: "Folks, sure's you're born; feet, hands, proper bad looking countenance; just the nigger getting old, I reckon." Then, as if seized with a bright idea, he extended his hand with a genuine Southern "How d'ye do, uncle?" The ape clasped the negro's hand and shook it long and cordially. Tawney then plied his new acquaintance with interrogations as to his name, nativity and former occupations; but eliciting no replies beyond a knowing shake of the head or a merry twinkle of the eye, (he was probably meditating the best way of tweaking the darkey's nose,) he concluded that the ape was determined to keep noncommittal; and looking cautiously around, chuckeled out: "He, he! you too sharp for 'em, old feller; keep dark; if you speak jes' one word of English, white man have a hoe in your hand in less than one minute."

BADLY FRIGHTENED.—Several weeks since a couple of persons, better known to the faculty of Cincinnatti than to the residents of the city at large, were the victims of a practical joke, the particulars of which they have tried unavailingly to keep secret. Fortunately they were unsuccessful, and as a reward for their extreme trepidation, they are afforded the following:

The twain alluded to are a couple of "honest tradesmen," so termed scientifically, but practically called "resurrectionists," (the mass of readers doubtless better understand the last phrase than the first,) who, on one of their midnight expeditions two weeks ago, secured a "subject" from a burying ground in the neighborhood of Carthage. To avoid suspicion, the body was placed on a seat of the wagon, and for its charnal house habiliments, a suit of earthly raiment was substituted, and as the wagon approached the city, no belated wanderer would ever have dreamed of the truth.

But at a hostelrie on the way side, that furnishes not entertainment for man and beast, but modern decoctions for young bloods, these two "honest tradesmen" stopped to quaff their favorite nectar, and it was during their abscence from the wagon that an attache of the hostelrie pitied their panting Beucephalus, and gave him drink. The hostler espied the third party on the seat, and ignorant of the true state of things, said to the supposed mortal "that it was a shame for his companions to take a drink and not invite him."

Of course, to this commiserating speech, no reply was made; so the hostler thought the fellow rude, but concluded to invite him in and enjoy a private "smile" of their own. Still no response. The hostler then drew close, and like a flash of gunpowder was made acquainted with the facts; he hesitated for a second, his fingers wandered slowly through his beard, and as if struck by a sudden and happy thought, he shouldered the corpse, carries it to the stable, and, donning its masquerade, usurps its place in the wagon. The "honest tradesman" having finished their imbibations, return to the vehicle, mount to the seat and drive off.

Not long and the hands of one of the twain press against the forehead of the corpse, and starting up, he says to his companions, "why, Jim, this body's warm;" the other naturally satisfies himself by a similar investigation and replies—"So it is, who ever heard of the like, a corpse warm three days after death." Here the supposed corpse chimed in, and said in a voice sepulchral as possible. "If you fellows had been in h—ll as long as I have, you would be warm, too." This was too much for the "honest tradesmen," who, jumping from their seats, fled, indiscriminately, leaving the 'live corpse sole gainer of a spavined horse and rickety wagon, as a part of the joke.

COURT PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, the Hon. AB'M S. WILSON, President Judge for the 20th Judicial District of Pennsylvania, composed of the counties of Union, Mifflin and Snyder, and ELIAS R. MENGAS, & N. MIDDLESWARTH, ESQ'RS, his Associate Judges in Snyder County, have issued their precept, bearing date the 25th day of Feb, 1860, and to me directed for the holding of an Adjourned, Court of Common Pleas, at MIDDLEBURG, for the county of SNYDER, on the 30th DAY of APRIL, A. D. 1860, next, and to continue one week.

Notice is therefore hereby given to the Coroner, Justices of the Peace and Constables in and for the county of Snyder, to appear in their own proper persons with their records, inquisitions, examinations and other remembrances to do those things which of their offices and in their behalf appertain to be done; and all Witnesses and other persons prosecuting in behalf of the Commonwealth against any person or persons, are required to be then and there attending, and not depart without leave at their peril. Jurors are requested to be punctual in their attendance at the appointed time agreeable to notice

Given under my hand and seal at the Sheriff's Office in Middleburg, on the 25th day of Feb., in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and in the eighty-fourth year of the Independence of the United States of America.—God save the Commonwealth.

LEVI S. HERROLD, Sheriff.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN STEREOSCOPIC EMPORIUM.

E. ANTHONY,

308 Broadway New York,

After May 1st, 1860, at 501 BROADWAY, two doors from the St. Nicholas Hotel.

The Stereoscope is the most instructive, interesting, entertaining, amusing and exciting of modern inventions.

None are too young, none too old, none too intelligent, none too uneducated, to acknowledge its worth and beauty.

No home is complete without it, and it must and will penetrate everywhere.

It presents to your view every part of the world, in all the relief, boldness, perspective, and sharpness of detail, as if you were on the spot.

Photographers are everywhere exploring Europe, Asia, Africa, America, in search of the grand and the beautiful, and the results of their skill are constantly enriching our stock.

We have an immense variety of paper Views of Scenes in Paris, London, England Scotland, Ireland, Wales, France, Belgium Holland, Switzerland, Spain, The Rhine, Versailles, St. Cloud, Fountainebleau, Tuilleries, Italy, Turkey, Egypt, Athens, the Holy Land, China, India, Crystal Palace, also Groups Historical, amusing, marriage scenes, breakfast scenes, pic-nics, statuary, &c., &c. An Exquisite assortment of Illuminated Interiors of Palaces, Churches, and Cathedrals of France, Italy, &c., &c. The effect of these illuminated views is most remarkable.

EVERY GENTLEMAN OF WEALTH AND REFINED TASTE should have in his drawing-room some of our exquisite views on glass, with a revolving stereoscope, showing 12, 25, 50, or 100 scenes. Nothing can be more fascinating, and one can offer no greater treat to a friend fond of the picturesque and the beautiful.

Anthony's Instantaneous Stereoscope views are the latest Photographic wonder. They are taken in the fortieth part of a second, and everything no matter how rapidly it may be moving, it is depicted as sharply and distinctly as if it had been perfectly at rest; this gives an additional value, for inanimate nature it adds the charm of life and motion. The process is a discovery of our own, and being unknown in Europe, we receive from London and Paris large orders for Anthony's Instantaneous views of American life and scenery.

Among other things we have just published Stereoscopic Illustrations of the Scene of the FULTON STREET PRAYER MEETINGS, in which many hearts feel an interest. The particulars of this will be found in our catalogue.

OUR CATALOGUE of subjects and prices will be forwarded to any address on receipt of a stamp.

Parties at a distance sending us $3, $5, $10, $15, $20, or $25 can have a good instrument and such pictures as they may request, sent by Express.

Views alone, (without instrument) can be rent by mail.

Parties who wish to be advised of everything really valuable in the line that comes out, may send us their names to keep on record, and we will keep them posted at our own expense.

Men of leisure will find Photography a most fascinating and delightful amusement. We are prepared to fit out amateurs with everything necessary for their success together with instructions "How to take Stereoscopic Pictures."

E. ANTHONY,

Importer and Manufacturer of Photographic materials, Stereoscopes and Stereoscopic Views.

☞Merchants from every section of the country are respectfully invited to make an examination of our stock, as our discount to the trade will be liberal.

To Photographers.—First class stereoscopic Negatives wanted.

Send by mail a print unmounted, with price of Negative.
